Love ya
Mary

Dennis,

Here's wishing a real sweet kid and a swell president all the luck in the world. Take good care of yourself this summer and don't do anything too bad.

We'll be big juniors next year & sure can't believe it. I hope you'll be in some of my classes next year too. Never forget all the fun we had in M. D.'s room.

See ya next year. Lots of Luck

Linda

Dennis,

Do a real good home room President, from the Secretary. I want to wish you the best of luck in your future years at R.H.S. I really have fun just being around you. Keep up your great personality.

Foreword

"It is said that the world is but a stage and the people in it merely players. Our stage is empty now, but soon some 1100 players will take their places to unfold our drama. The play is entitled OUR TOWN and the medium of entertainment is the pages of this book.

The script for OUR TOWN was prepared by the 1963 BENGAL staff under the supervision of Mrs. Zola McMurray. The play was produced and directed by the administration and the faculty of LHS. The actors, actresses and viewing audience are you, the student body.

Many thanks are extended to area businessmen, the sponsors of OUR TOWN. Special recognition is given to IMEL's and FRAN RADER's photographic studios, whose help has been an invaluable service to the BENGAL.

Lewiston, Idaho, the setting of our drama, presents a typical picture of a typical town to the outsider. The BENGAL staff hopes to capture in this production that quality which transforms a geographic location into that very special place — OUR TOWN.

And now on with the show . . . "

Dedication

. . . because he's not too busy to greet each student with a smile,

. . . because he treats each boy and girl as an individual capable of adult responsibilities,

. . . because he takes the time to learn about each student's personality and expectations,

. . . because he not only seeks scholastic achievement for Lewiston High School but also supports extracurricular activities, and

. . . because he has developed a life-long friendship with each student within the space of one short year—

For these reasons, the 1963 Bengal Staff dedicates OUR TOWN to Mr. Frank Clark, principal of Lewiston Senior High School.

Producers and Directors

The directors of any show are "most important people." Herewith we present our faculty, those selected to accept the responsibility of educating and directing the student body. Shown above is the faculty of Lewiston Senior High:

Row 1: Dale James, Ron Hayes, Glen Tiede, Frank Pentzer, Roy Smith, John Lynch, Ed Sanman, Margaret Lee, Robert Harris, Cal Messinger. Row 2: Bob Yeoman, John Mitchell, Dwight Church, Eva Peterson, Ina Carlson, Florence Pratt, Ruth Modie, Queen Holbrook, Ada Parker, Ruby Driskell. Row 3: Grace Tapp, Merl Kytonen, Grace Nixon, Marion Shinn, Ken Jurmu, Fannie Carpenter, Ruth Jones, JoAnn Nelson, Zola McMurray. Row 4: Rosemary Daubert, J. Ross Woods, Jaynee Hartwell, May Nesbitt, John Rudolph, Richard Harvey, Ed Ranta, Carl Harris, Martha Lund, Andrew Smith.

To the left we have those more directly concerned with the actual operation of the school itself—the producers: C. L. Booth, Superintendent of Schools; Mr. Andrew Smith, Curriculum Director; Frank Clark, Principal; L. E. Click, Assistant Superintendent. They are "on stage" at rehearsal seeing that the production of this year's play is the finest to date.

Secretary—Jan Cox

Vice-President—Chuck Hauntz

They Guided Student Accomplishments

As ushers for the student body, the Student Council of 1962-63, made up of club and class presidents, Purr and Annual editors, and homeroom representatives, met Tuesday mornings at 7:15. Under the advisorship of Principal Frank B. Clark and the leadership of President Allen Johnston, Vice-President Chuck Hauntz, and Secretary Jan Cox, this year's Council led the way in promoting better student-teacher relations and better student government in our school.

One of the most exciting times of the year for L.H.S. students was the Student Council all-school election held in the Spring. Nominees learned the importance of political campaigning and students learned the importance of choosing "the best man for the job."

National Honor Society

Members of this club must maintain a 3.5 grade average and be outstanding in leadership, character, scholarship, and service. Officers for 1962-63 were Tom Lankford, President; Bill Lankford, Vice-President; and Cottie Lacey, Secretary-Treasurer. The club was under the guidance of Mrs. Ruby Driskell.

Science Honorary

The members of Science Honorary promote scientific interests at L.H.S. Main events for this organization were a trip in the spring and ushering at the Science Fair. The group was under the direction of Leah Stevenson, President; Mike Skok, Vice-President; Carol Denning, Secretary; and Mr. Marion Shinn, Advisor.

L—Cube Gives Service

The main service of these 25 girls was to serve at community and school functions. The project for this year was a paperback book store. The organization is a Senior Girls' Honorary; members are chosen on the basis of a three point grade average and participation in at least three school-sponsored activities.

Officers for 1962-63 were Diana Llewellyn, Captain; Mary Anne Arbuckle, First Lieutenant; and Jeannine Haynes, Second Lieutenant. The advisor was Mrs. Rosemary Daubert.

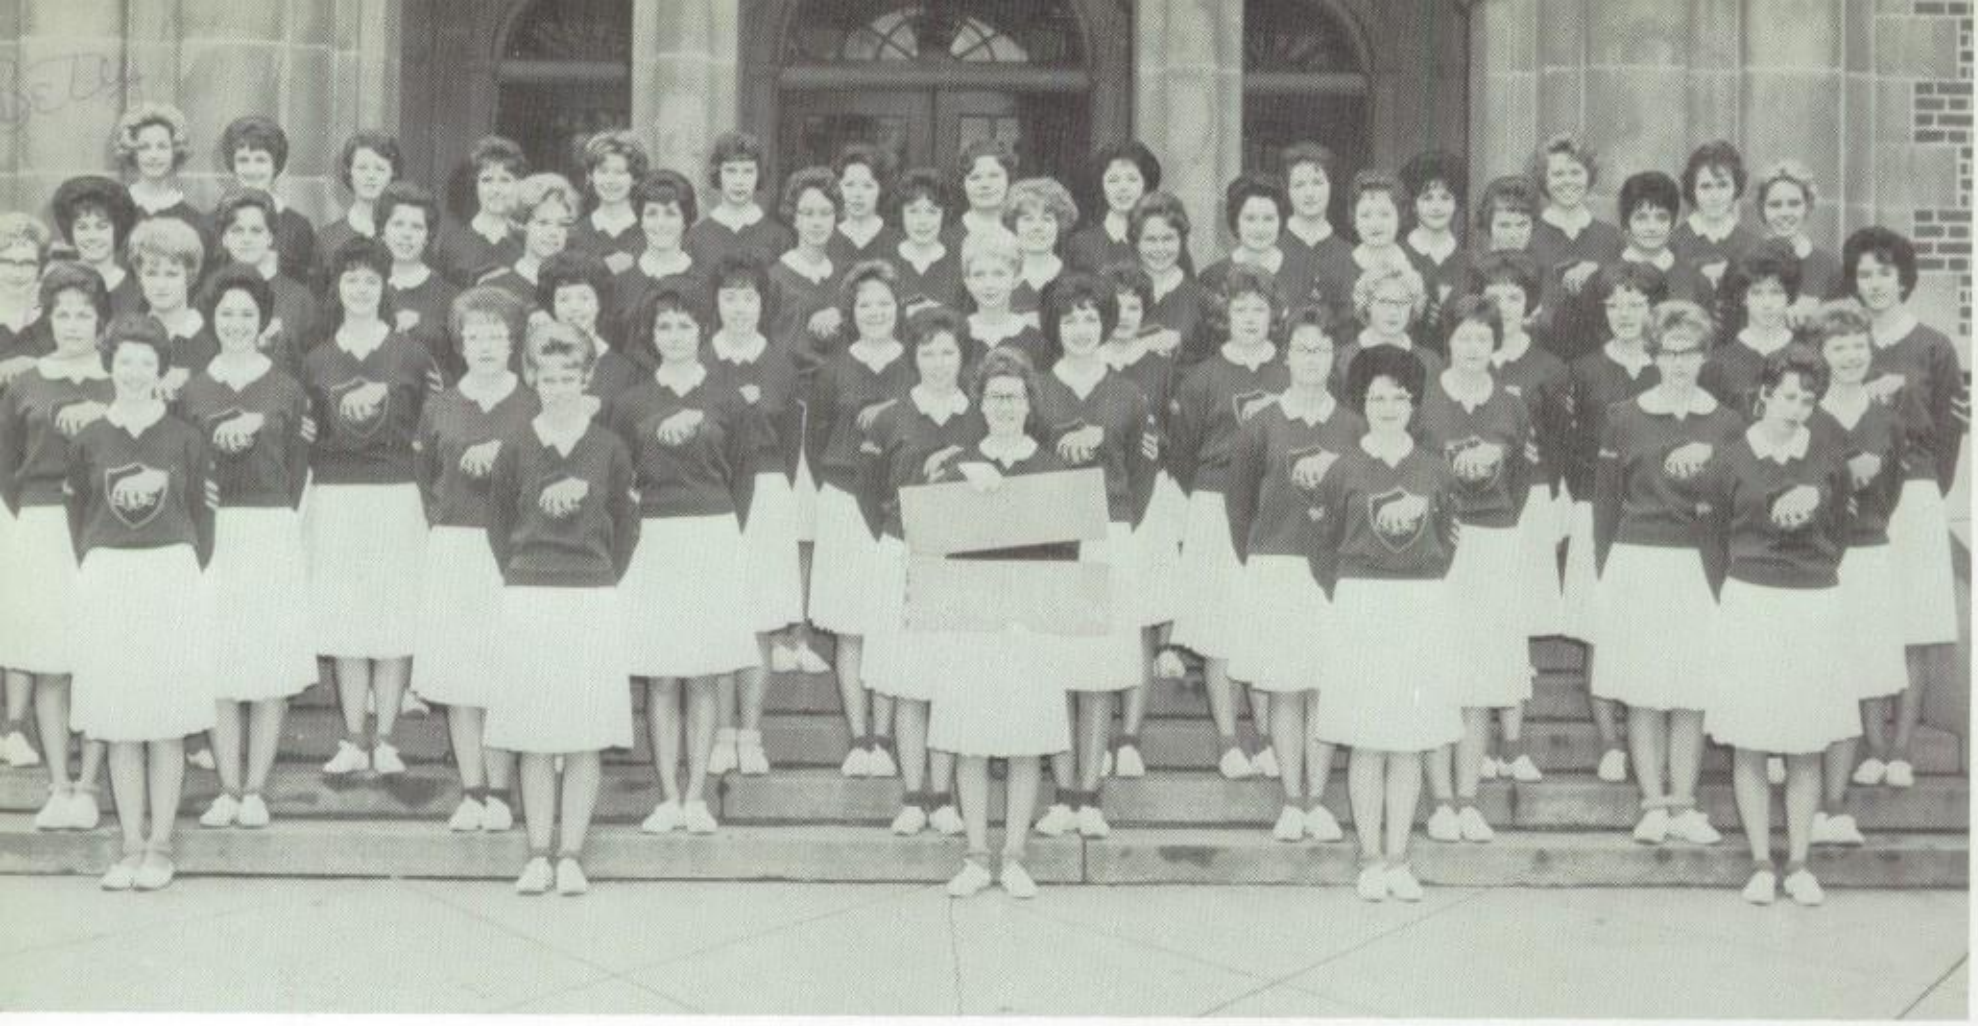
The Purple and Gold Council had another active year gathering Christmas baskets for needy families, and sponsoring the Senior Tea and the Mother-Daughter Tea. Mrs. Queen Holbrook was advisor of this group.



1962-63 Active Year For Bengal Claw

With the guidance and leadership of Mary Jo James and Mrs. Queen Holbrook this year's Bengal Claws did much to help their school. Two of the main projects of the year were ushering for the Lewiston Roundup and selling mums for the annual homecoming game. Mary Jo James was top salesman selling 31 mums.

Girls are required to be members of the student body in order to join this organization. Bengal Claws sponsor the marching group called Bengalettes. This group marched at numerous football and basketball games, and participated in various parades. The group was led by Mary Ann Arbuckle, Co-ordinator; Kathy Nuttman, Drill Leader; and Vickie Berger, Flag Leader. Leaders of a new group—the Sophomore Marching Unit—were Mary Jo James and Cheryl Johnson.

Officers for the Claws were Mary Jo James, President; Susan Helpman, Vice-President; Mary Lou Barker, Secretary; and Gloria Nelson, Treasurer. Advisor was Mrs. Queen Holbrook.

Loyalty Squad Adds Enthusiasm

Loyalty Squad added much to L.H.S. spirit this year by selling school decals, football and basketball programs, and by providing half-time entertainment at several basketball games. They also worked hard keeping the trophy cases in the halls clean.

Officers of Loyalty Squad were President, Gwen Hyke; Vice-President, Cottie Lacey; and Secretary, Anne Lund. Advisor was John Mitchell.

Hello down there!

Girls' L- Club

Under the advisorship of Mrs. Kytonen, the Girls' Lettermen Club's main job was to sell and take tickets at the games. One of their big events was a picnic. The President was Joan Sullivan; Vice-President, Sue Williams; Secretary, Karen Stillman; and Treasurer, Betty Kytonen.

Boys' L- Club

Beginning the year with a 5-win 4-loss football season, the Boys' Lettermen Club was off to a good start. In order to be a full pledged member each boy much have a varsity letter. President was Ed Geis; Vice-President, Ted Scott; and Secretary-Treasurer, John Geidl. Mr. Church was the new advisor.

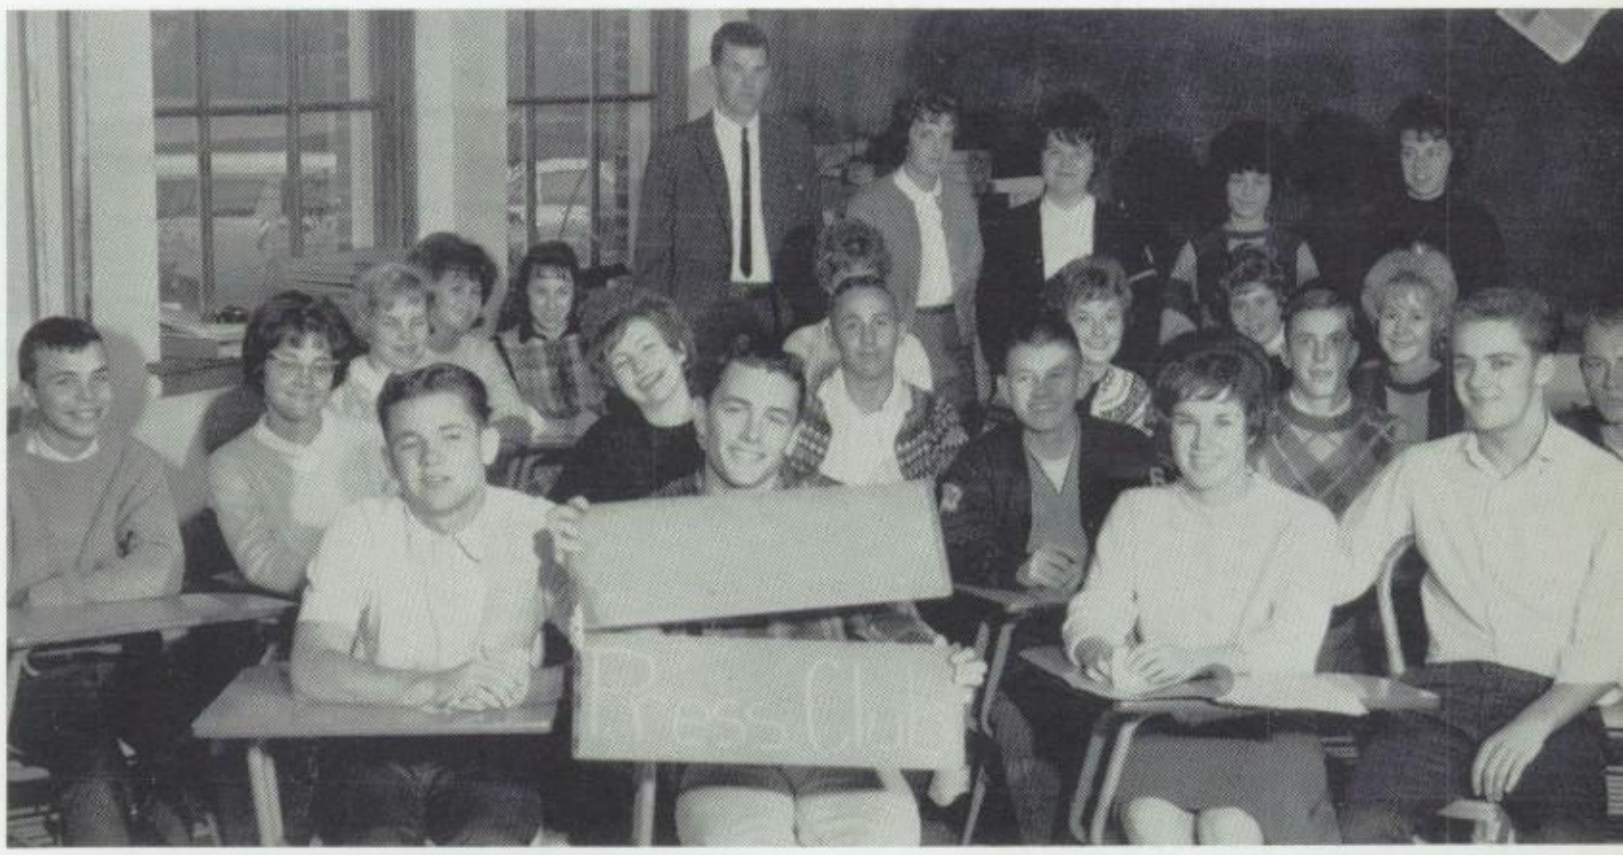
Mary Lynn Randall
Business Manager

Under the direction of new advisor, Mr. Ron Hayes, the class studied the workings of Journalism and published the "Purr." Purr Staffers for the 1962-63 year were Mike Skok, Editor; Mary Lynn Randall, Business Mgr.; John Black, Sports Editor; Paula Robins, Associated Editor; Carlos Grant, Associate Sports Editor; Gwen Hyke, Vera Carman, and Bonnie Nearing, News Editors; Lois Schok, Chris Turner, Lynda Kohl, Marie Reintjes and Darlene Anderson, Columns; and Gail Garret, Photography.

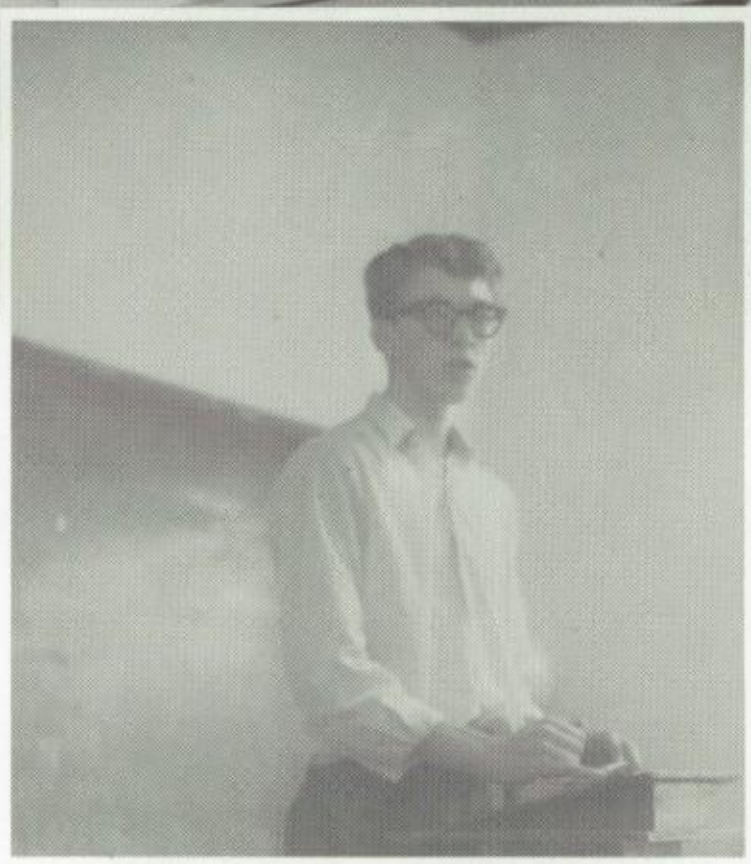
Tag Salesmen

The 1963 Bengal tag salesmen, led by Senior, Dave Bacharach with a record 145, sold a total of 666 tags. Close behind Bacharach were Ann Blake, Sophomore (135), and Terry Hill, Sophomore (70). The other tag salesmen were Angelene Clark, Junior, Judy Muscat, Senior, Timmy Kelly, Junior, Mary Kay Pinch, Sophomore, Wayne Adams, Junior, John Nelson, Senior, and Larry Heimgartner, Junior.

Press Club



Under the leadership of their new advisor, Ron Hayes, the Press Club set as its primary goal the advancement of its members. To accomplish this the club sent delegates to several journalistic conventions. These included the Pacific Slope Press Clinic at the University of Washington, the Idaho State Spring Convention at the Idaho State College, and the spring convention at the University of Idaho. This year's officers were John Black, President; Dave Bacharach, Vice-President; and Chris Turner, Secretary.



"The Foreign Trade Policy of the United States" was the topic that the eight members of the 1962-63 debate squad discussed. Under the leadership of Mrs. Eva Peterson, advisor, and Chiron Morgan, President, the debaters attended contests at Moscow, Spokane, Pasco, and Seattle.

Debaters Discuss and Reason

Declamation Furnishes Entertainment

Interested students, under the guidance of Mrs. Ruth Jones, attended declamation meets to present oratorical, impromptu, and extemporaneous speeches. Highlights for the year were the One-Act Speech Play and the All-High Play.

KOZE Team

KRLC Team

Radio Forensic

Radio Forensic worked for better school-community relationship with the co-operation of radio stations KOZE and KRLC. Team captains were Gwen Hyke, KRLC, and Leah Stevenson, KOZE. Officers for 1962-63 were Brian Thomas, President; Bill Wilson, Vice-President; and Julia Streiff, Secretary-Treasurer. The advisor was Mrs. Eva Peterson.

Electronics

Under the leadership of Mr. Ed Sanman, Jr., electronics helped at assemblies, plays, and concerts with sound and lighting. Officers for 1962-63 were Dave Perkins, President; Mike Duley, Vice-President; and Bill Raschka, Secretary.

Projectors

The Projectors Club, under the guidance of Mr. Ed Sanman, Jr., Bill Raschka, President; Mike Duley, Vice-President; and Bob Carpenter, Secretary, aided faculty and students by showing films.

L.H.S. students were aided by these helpful girls in finding necessary literature for reports and enjoyable reading. Under the direction of Miss Ina Carlson, the gals silenced bookworms and assisted in other library duties.

Librarians Aid Students

Secretaries of tomorrow need to gain experience today. These students proved to be a real help to teachers of the Bengal Empire. They kept records, did mimeographing, ditto work, and filing for the teachers.

Teachers' Secretaries Helpful

Commercial Club Active

The 1962-63 Commercial Club, under the guidance of Mrs. Marie Nicholas, and the leadership of Karen Hansen, president; Christine Plourde, vice-president; Pat Mullen, secretary; and Rita Williams, treasurer; had an active year. To be eligible for the club, it is required that students take two commercial subjects. Projects for the year included an initiation banquet and an installation dinner.

DECA Develops Sportsmanship

The Distributive Education Club of America trains high school students for future work as salesmen and business men and women.

One of the main objectives of the club is to develop business sense and a pleasing personality.

Officers for the year were Carlos Grant, President; Betty Merrill, Secretary; and Bob Harrington, Vice-President.

FHA Pursues Objectives

As main objectives the Future Homemakers of America promoted international goodwill and emphasized importance of worthy home membership.

Officers for the year were Judy Spurgeon, President; Yvonne Eble, Vice-President; and Sharon Lazier, Secretary.

Yell Leaders Maintain School Spirit

Ann Blake, Queen Nancy Taylor, and Lindy Nordby led the cheers for the 1962-63 B-squad year. Alternate was Maxine Fisher. The tremendous spirit and enthusiasm of the Sophomore class made their year a very successful one.

Action shots of the A and B-squad cheerleaders were from the games and assemblies.

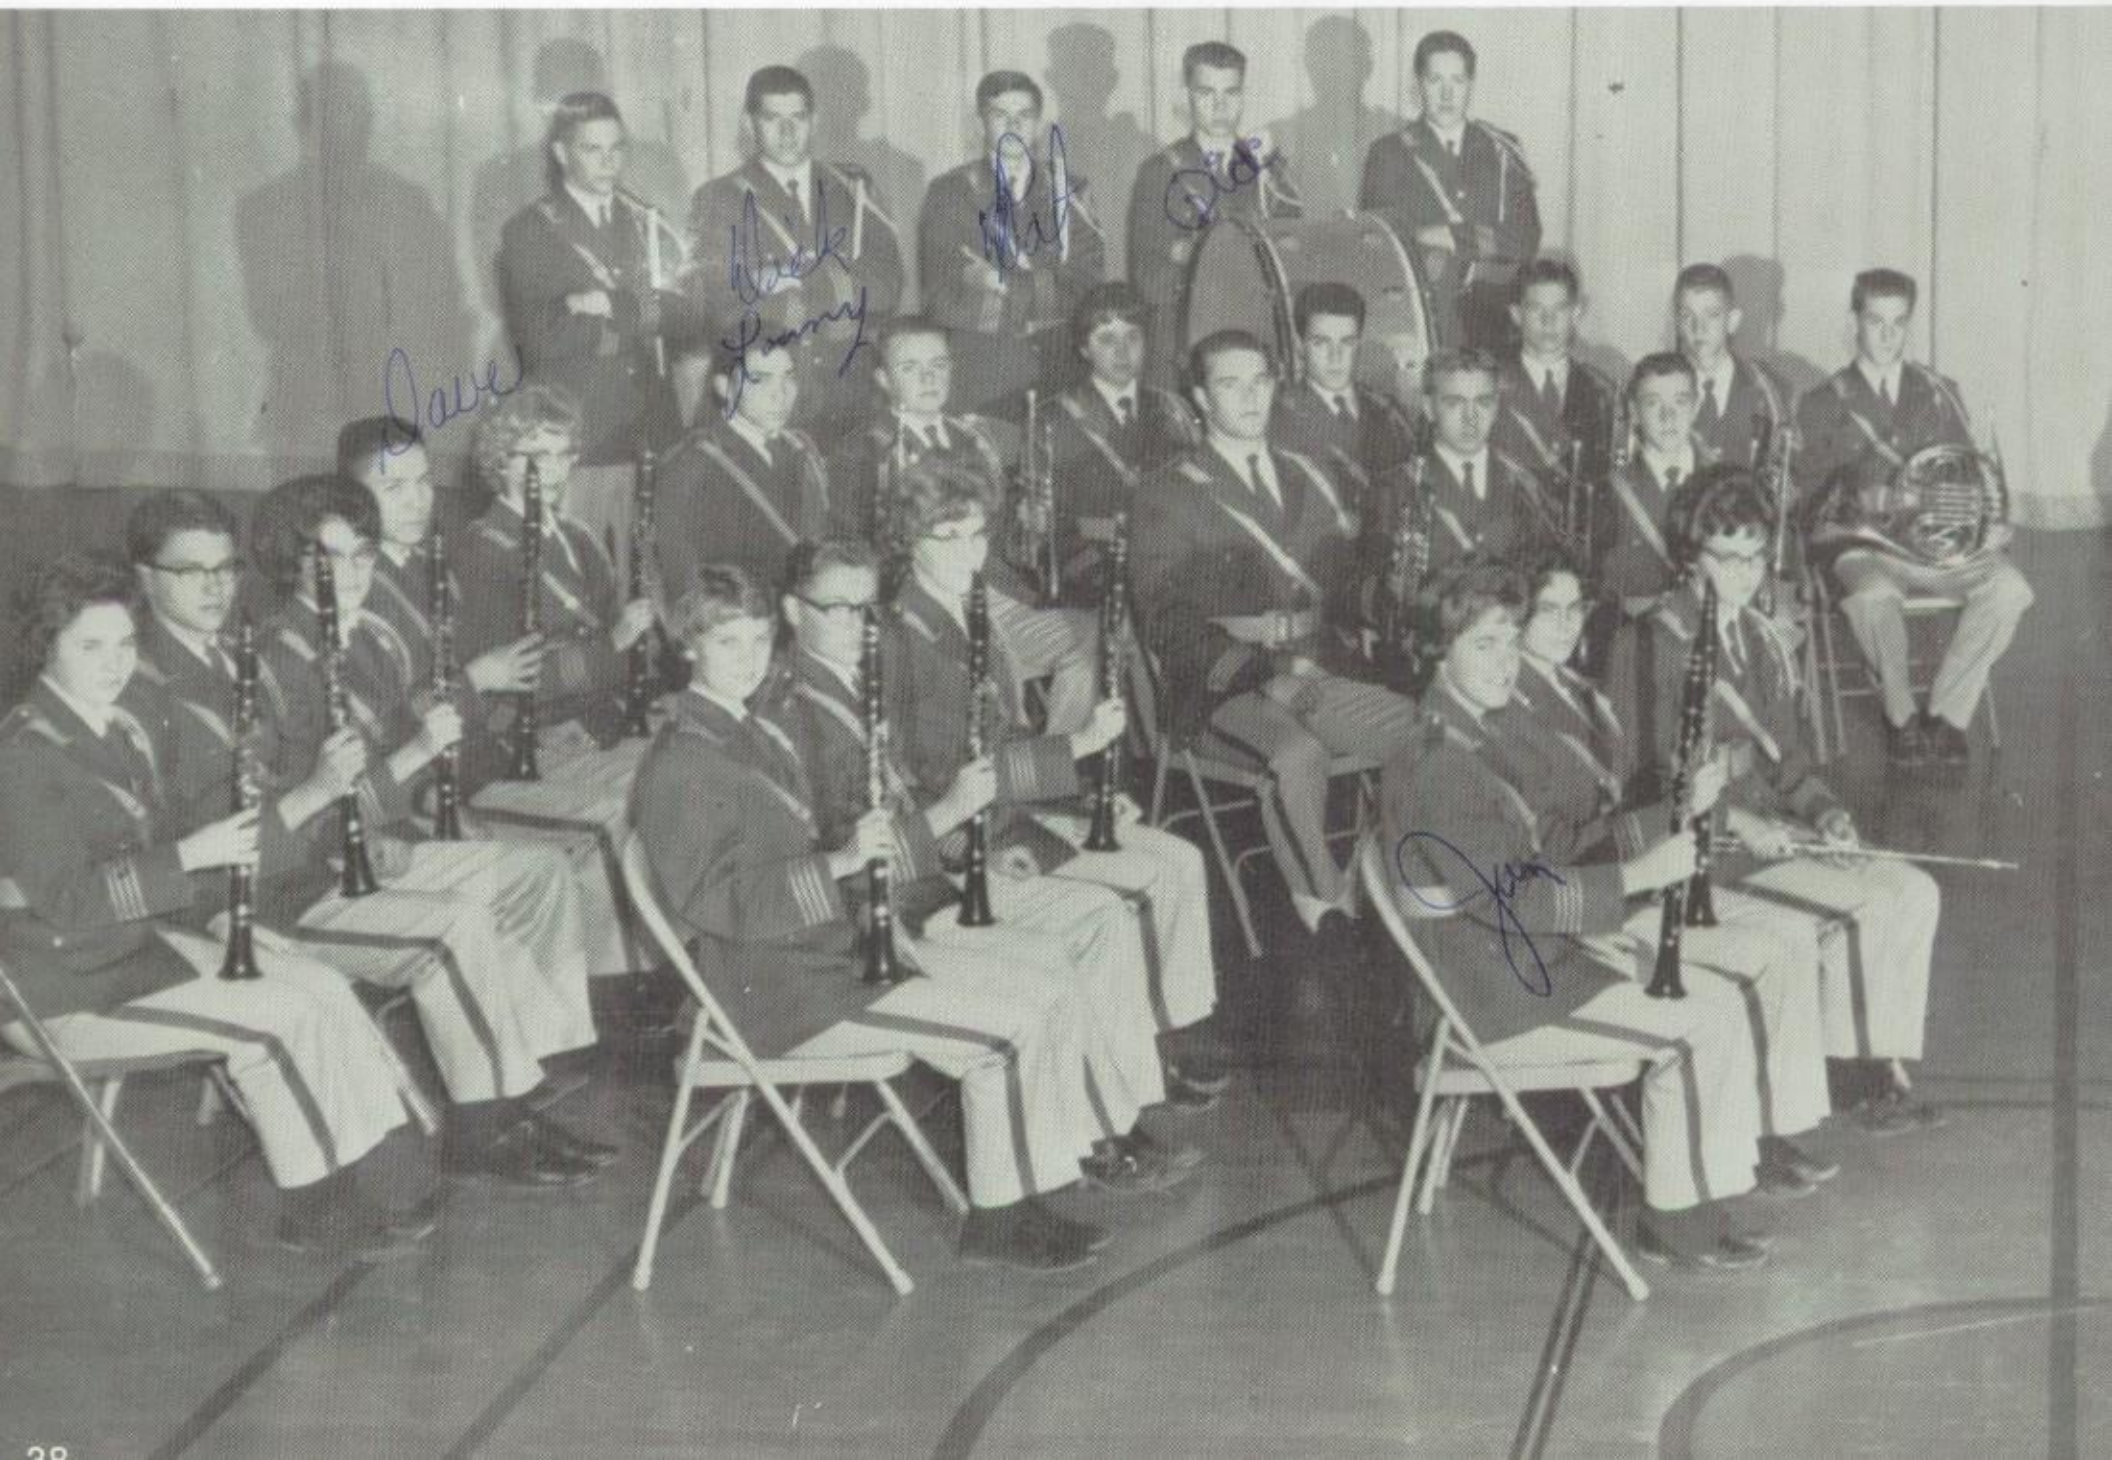
The trumpet trio was made up of Larry Grove, John Chamberlin, and Wayne King.

Jan Cox, Darlene Ash, Kathy Neely, and Mike Bare were in the clarinet quartet.

Gary Nyberg, Dave Bream and Allen Johnston made up the baritone trio.



These instrumental seniors, selected from Band and Orchestra, were outstanding in their musical ability. They are Janet Smith, Cecilia Whitney, Jeanine Haynes, Jan Cox, Sue Richardson, Pat Callahan, Gary Nyberg, Greg McGregor, Allen Johnston, and Anne Lund.

The band, directed by J. Ross Woods, performed at LHS social functions. The band members were led by Greg McGregor, President and Garry Moore, Secretary.

Orchestra Completes Successful Year

With J. Ross Woods as conductor, the LHS orchestra pleased its audience to the utmost with strains of classical and orchestral music. The 62-63 orchestra totaled 44 members.

Swing Band at it's Best

The swing band for the 62-63 year proved to be at its very best when playing for various out-of-town dances. The group was under the directorship of J. Ross Woods.

Pep Band Peppiest Ever

The 1962-63 pep band, under the leadership of Gary Nyberg, displayed their enthusiastic talent at many a football and basketball game and pep assembly.

The Band Lettermen's Club was an active group in 1962-63. This club helps o promote better co-operation among band and orchestra students and to de-elop leadership among its members. The group was led by Cecelia Whitney, resident; Janet Smith, Vice President; Francis Klappenbach, Secretary; and Club dvisor J. Ross Woods.

Sue Richardson was selected to go to Northwest Band Conference in Casper, Wyoming. She will represent the band at the conference.

Girls' Chorus Delights Audience

The Girls' Chorus did its part to add enchantment and delight for its audiences. Membership requires that each girl have an interest in music and the ability to sing under strict direction.

The chorus made its first appearance at the Thanksgiving Assembly. It also sang at the Christmas and Spring Concerts. Accompanists included Carol Brigham and Julie Bailey.

The Girls' Chorus performs for the audiences.

A Cappella Choir

The A Cappella choir, under the direction of Robert E. Harris, presented its 80 voices in concert to the public on December 14. Other activities included singing for the Thanksgiving Assembly, the Tag Assembly, and the Spring Concert.

Accompanied by Mary Ann Lee, pianist, and Joelle Michaelis, organist, the choir achieved its aim and provided its audiences with enlightening and interesting music.

John Pederson, accompanied by Mary Ann Lee.

Ensemble Composed of Superior Singers

The Mixed Ensemble, composed of superior singers, added to the listening pleasure of their audiences. Among these were the soloists of the choral department which included Judy Anderson and Judi Henderson, sopranos; Betty Smith, Gloria Nelson and Nancy Sinclair, altos; Jim Bauman and Vernon Dinnell, tenors; Dave Bundy, baritone; and John Pederson, bass. Members completing the Ensemble are Judy Weissenfluh and Cheryl Johnson, sopranos; Mike Skok and Vicki Berger, altos; Pat Calahan and Leslie Webb, basses; and Mary Ann Lee, accompanist.

Judy Anderson, accompanied by Carol Brigham.

Has Sucessful Season

The choir is composed of students that not only enjoy music, but who have the ability to respond to difficult numbers which is necessary for membership in the choir.

CLASS OF '63 PRESENTS THE WHOLE TOWN'S TALKING

The Senior class of 1963 created an air of humor for their audience during their three act comedy, "The Whole Town's Talking" by Coombs.

A quiet bookkeeper named Chester Binney and his boss, Mr. Henry Simmons, invent a fictitious love affair involving Chester and a famous movie star named Letty Lythe. The reason: to attract the attention of Mr. Simmons' daughter, Ethel, and marry her off to Chester.

Heading the cast was Chiron Morgan, who played the part of Henry Simmons; Greg McGregor as Chester Binney; Betty Smith as Hattie Simmons; Jeanine Haynes as Ethel Simmons; Jim Bauman as Roger Shields; Mike Skok as Letty Lythe; Brian Thomas as Donald Swift; Cottie Lacey as Annie, the maid; Judi Henderson as Lila Wilson; La Fawn Hamm as Sally Otis; Sue Richardson as Sadie Bloom; and Will Cook as the taxi driver. Under the able direction of Mrs. Ruth Jones and Judy Weissenfluh, student director, the play was given in two performances, January 22-23.

Curtain call . . . and success! !

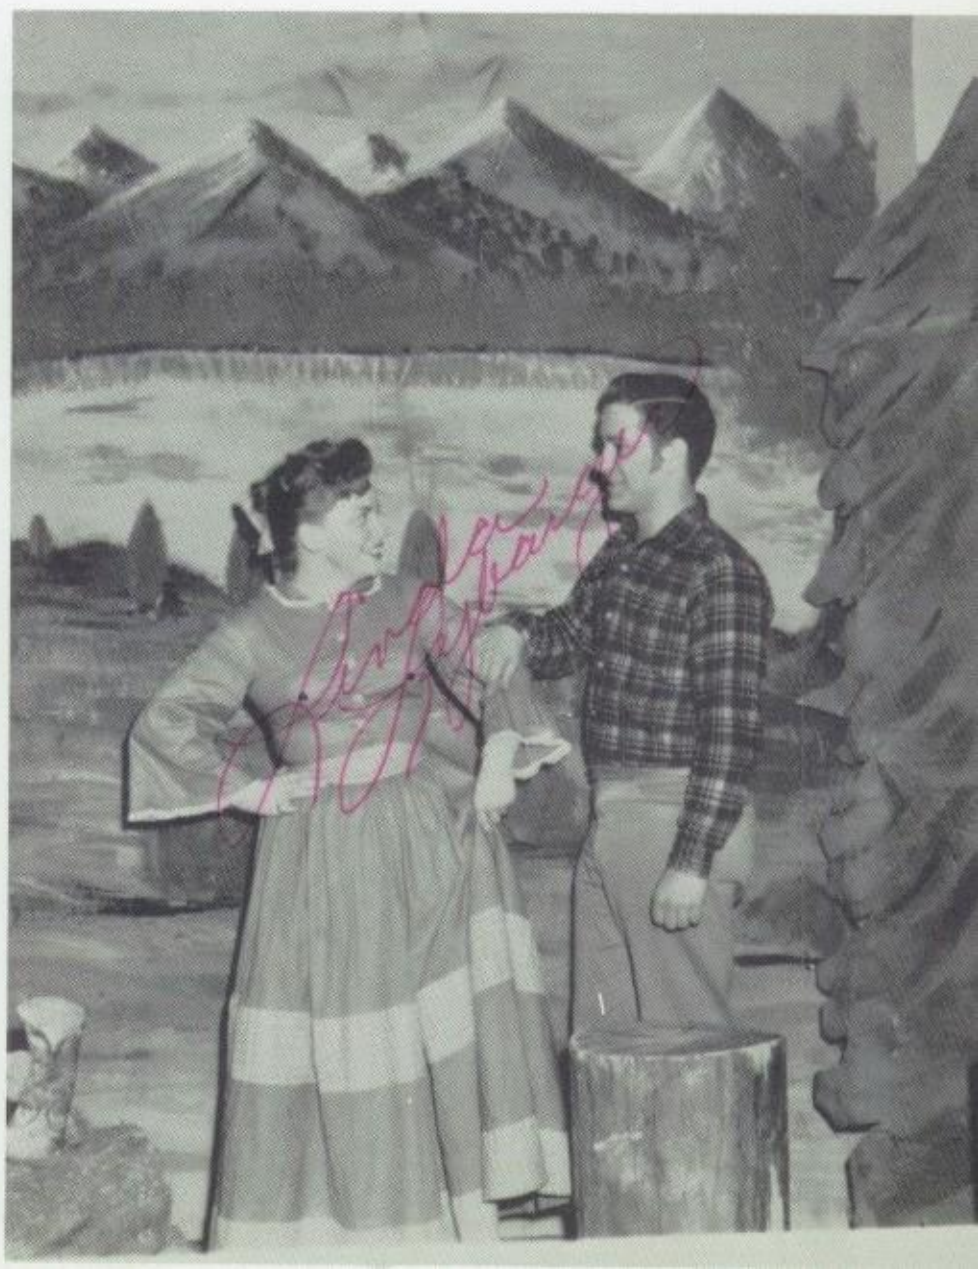
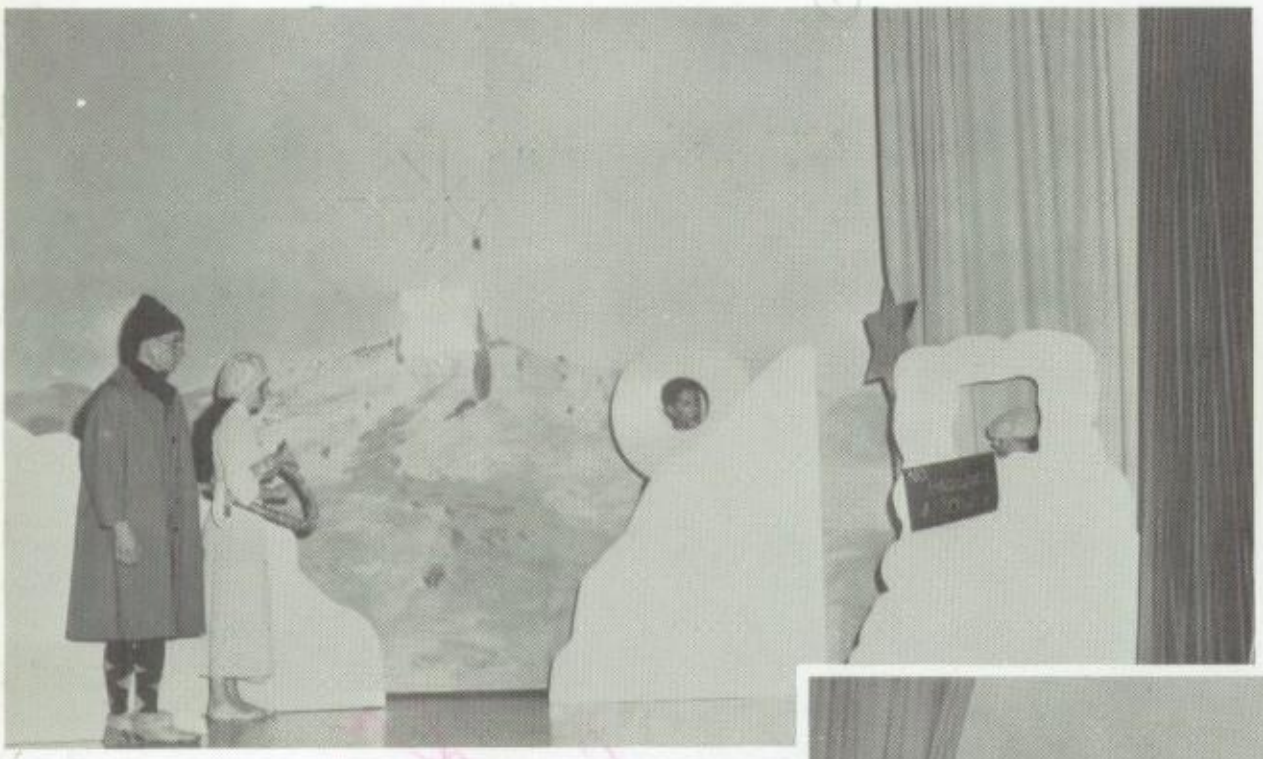
"I came for my bag!"

"Tall Trees"

The musical, TALL TREES, was presented by the students of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes and directed by Mrs. Ruth Jones. The leading roles were played by Dave Bundy as Kurt, and Gloria Nelson as Katie. The play was in co-operation with the Lewiston Centennial. The setting was Lewiston 1863.



Plays Provide Entertainment



The 1963 Children's Play, "Slumberboat", was presented to many youngsters in the various Lewiston grade schools. It was directed by Mrs. Ruth Jones with the assistance of Becky Ranta, student director. The main characters in the play were Rag-Tag, played by Judy Vaughan; Man-in-the-Moon, played by Barry Dufour; Sandman, portrayed by Brian Thomas; and Hoot Owl, represented by Jim Naslund. Carlos Grant and John Black provided entertainment during the intermission.

This year's speech class went to Coeur d'Alene and performed, to their utmost ability, before district judges for points in good acting. The play, "Taking The Count", was directed by Mrs. Ruth Jones, advisor, and Cottie Lacey, student director. Those portraying the leads were: John Geidl as Michael; Brian Thomas as Count Mudslingski; Judy Weissenfluh as Paulena; Dave Bacharach as Jim; Mrs. Van Snootsen was played by Frances Barnett; and the maid was played by Ann Longfellow.

ART STUDENTS MAKE HONORARY

On many occasions the halls were gaily decorated with the excellent artwork of Art Honor Society. Officers for 62-63 are President Dick Kelso; Vice-President Dick Bieren; and Secretary-Treasurer Doreen Kiele.

Activities, the bit parts and extras of "OUR TOWN," added the sugar and spice to the LHS academic year. Each school day was welcomed by cast and audience alike because the varied activities made each day a new adventure.

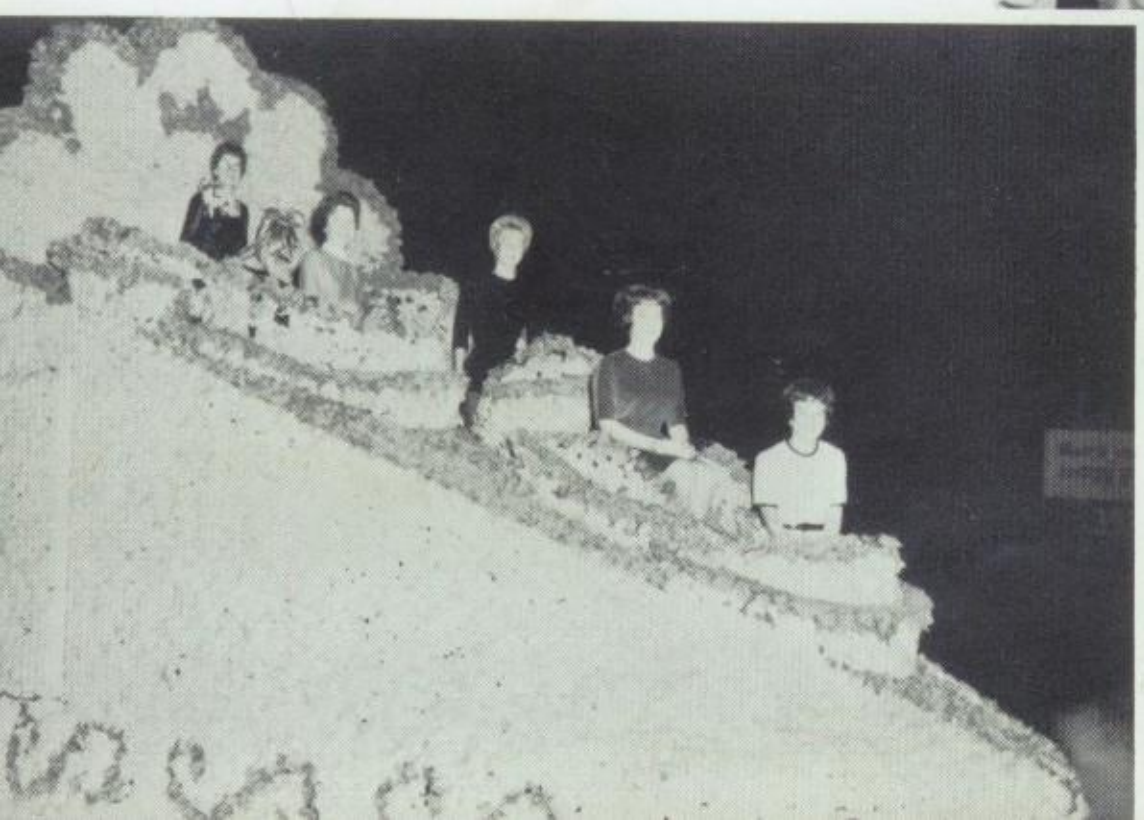
Homecoming royalty and football players were honored by a serpentine through Main Street.

Queen Mary Jo Plays Lead in Homecoming Festivities

The curtain went up on the 1962 Homecoming in a pep assembly the afternoon of October 26, at which time the royalty was announced by 1960 Homecoming Queen, Sally Kidwell. In supporting roles were Linda Nordby, Sophomore Princess; Kathy Barnes, Junior Princess; Mary Anne Arbuckle and Bonnie Nearing, Senior Princesses. Mary Jo James was given the traditional royal scepter as she became Queen of Homecoming activities.

Following the assembly, the entire student body took part in a serpentine down the Main Street of Lewiston, led by Queen Mary Jo and her court.

The royal court was presented during halftime of the Lewiston-Wallace game on an elaborate purple and gold float. The climax of the Homecoming activities came at the traditional Homecoming Dance, at which time football co-captains Rod Uglem and Tom Lankford crowned Queen Mary Jo and her princesses. The dance was held at Casey's this year with music provided by the "Demons." Chuck Hauntz, Vice-President of the student body, planned and executed all events of the 1962 Homecoming, with the help of the committees.



Sadie Hawkins Day Dance

Carol Dehning and Will Cook were named the best dressed Dogpatch couple at the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance at the YAC. Mr. Dwight Church played the role of Marryin' Sam at the big affair.

To the left is a picture of a typical scene of a YAC committee meeting at the home of one of the members.

The Senior Ball Committee worked hard . . . or did they?

Administrators and their wives, parents, and seniors formed the receiving line to greet guests at the 1962-63 Senior Ball.

Dancers were enchanted by the lighted chandelier center piece, by the spotlighted "icy" wall in the background, and especially by the wonderful music of the David Trail quartet and soloist Dave Pugh.

YAC Christmas Dance

The annual Christmas Dance, December 22, marked the close of school for the Yule holidays. Decorations for this social event, as well as for other dances held during the year, were outstanding.

A special treat was added when Mr. Dwight Church volunteered to play the part of Santa Claus.

YAC Provides Festivities

Many special dances provided by the YAC highlighted the 1962-63 school term. Among these festivities were the Christmas, Sweetheart, Sadie Hawkins, and the Senior Farewell Dances. YAC officers were John Geidl, President; Stan Hill, Vice President; Paula Robins, Secretary-Treasurer. The group was supervised by Roy Pearson.

YAC Gives Cupid a Boost

Cupid brought down the house at the YAC Sweetheart Dance when Karen Hansen was crowned Queen, February 16. More than 100 couples attended the elaborately decorated event put on by the YAC committee members. Miss Hansen's court consisted of senior princesses Mary Anne Arbuckle, Mike Skok, and Bonnie Nearing; junior princess Diane Windsor.

The Bengals had a very successful season. Starting out with a green ball club, they progressed all year into a very fine unit. The team was high on good sound spirit all year long, and had tremendous hustle and desire. The Bengals had strong leadership from co-captains, Rod Uglem and Tom Lankford. Starting the season with 86 boys, the Bengals finished with 84. The two boys they lost were forced out because of injuries. With a 19-12 victory over Clarkston, the Bengals finished the season with a 5-1 league record. At the conclusion of the season several new awards were given. They are as follows: Rod Uglem—All state honorable mention, Rick Young—Outstanding lineman, Jerry Chavez—Mr. Hustle award, Charlie Rake—Most improved player and Darryl Ailor—Most valuable back. Traditional awards went to Bill Lankford—Most inspirational player, and John Geidl—Most valuable player.

Larry Heimgartner

Under the expert direction of Coach Dale James and the watchful eyes of managers, Ed Geis and Larry Heimgartner, the Lewiston Golden Bengals climaxed a winning 15 to 3 season by traveling south to Boise for the Idaho State AAA Basketball Tournament. In an action packed game with Pocatello, the Bengals lost their first tourney by a slim 52 to 53. In the second round LHS won over Salmon, but in the third round with Emmett they again suffered defeat. As "Lady Luck" sometimes wills, the winner of the state tournament, the Couer d'Alene Vikings, had been defeated earlier in the season by the Bengals.

Seven returning lettermen, four of whom had played in the starting lineup of the previous season, made up the core of the 15 man squad. This experience, plus hard work and skillful coaching, made the winning season possible. Playing offense, the Bengals averaged 47 points per game; for defensive games the average was 38.7 points.

A-SQUAD BASEBALL

Spring Brings Baseball Turn-Out

March winds, warm temperatures, and baseball were three sure signs of spring at Lewiston High. Coached by Dwight Church, 23 boys turned out almost every day of the spring months for A-Squad Baseball.

Eight seniors, eight juniors and seven sophomores made up the squad. Several members of the team including Tom Lankford, Jerry Chavez, Garry Jones, Jim Minnette, Steve Arnold, Jim Naslund, Dale Callahan, and Wayne Adams gained experience during past summer months by playing with Lewiston's American Legion Ball Club. Although baseball has long been America's national game, it has been a recognized varsity sport at LHS for only three years.

Bowlers Number 56

Led by league officers, Dave Bacharach, president; John Black, vice-president; and Mary Jo James, secretary; LHS bowling attracted some 56 participants. Divided into 14 teams of four members each, bowlers saw action once a week at Imperial Bowl.

The season ended with a three-way tie for first place among the Roosters, the Rebels, and the Knockers. Comprising the three top teams were the Roosters: Dave Bacharach, Chuck Hauntz, Butch Baldwin, and John Black; the Rebels: Vernon Benjamin, Earl Benson, Gordon Adams, and Mike Dooley; the Knockers: Carlos Grant, Bob Wise, George Housel, and Ken O'Toole.

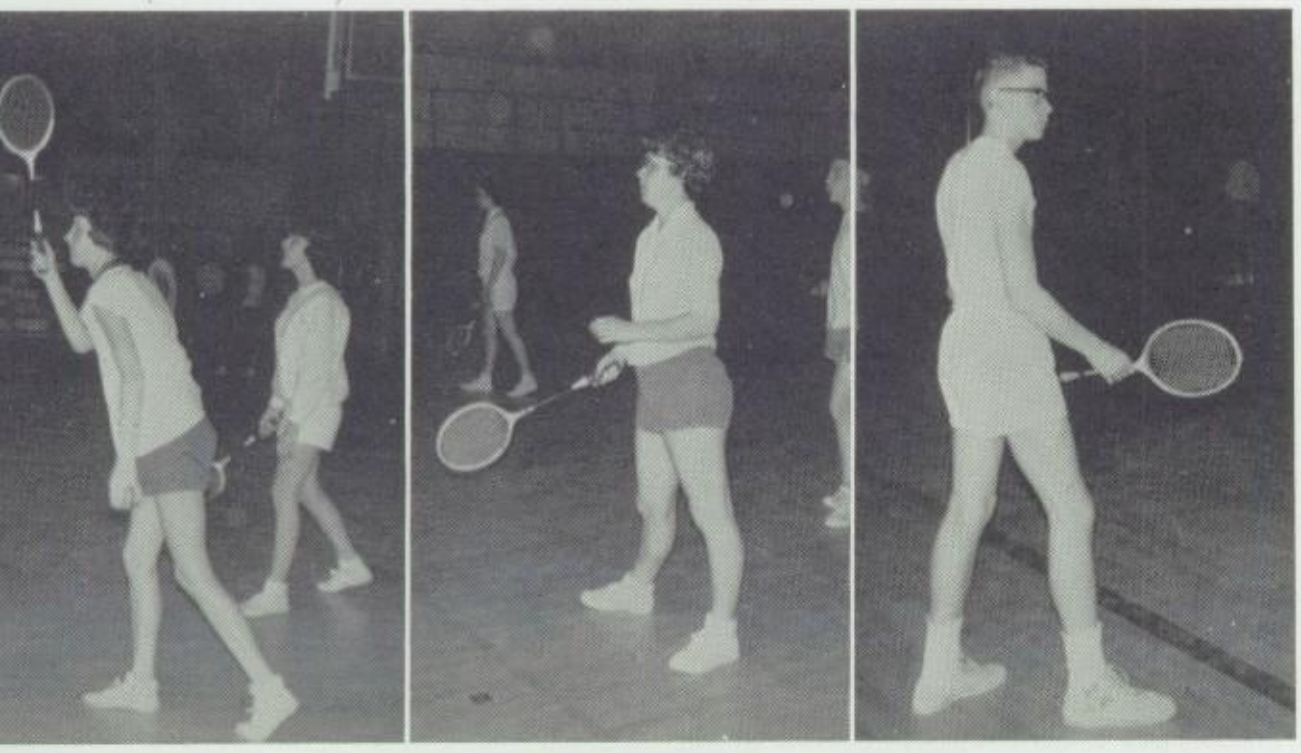
Golf Interest High

The '63 golf season at LHS witnessed more interesting divot diggers than had been seen for several years. Some 12 potential golfers turned out for practice under Coach Roy Smith. Returning lettermen were Dave Bacharach, Skip Pierce,



Spokane Trip Climaxes Badminton Season

The highlight of the badminton season was the annual trip to Spokane March 28th and 29th.

Under the capable direction of Merl Kytonen, the team held a fund-raising dinner in the cafeteria to finance the affair. By practicing daily for almost a month, members of the team showed great improvement.

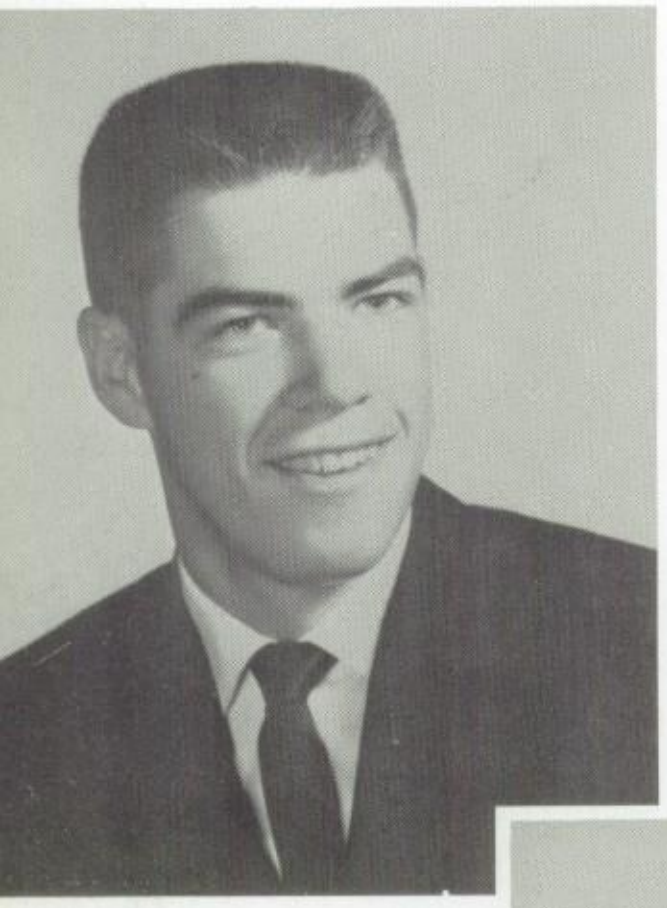
Act V

Once again "OUR TOWN" has attracted a capacity audience. From the early part of September through the later part of May, the halls of LHS have been filled with these 1100 spectators.

LHS student body gathered at a pep assembly.

Representative



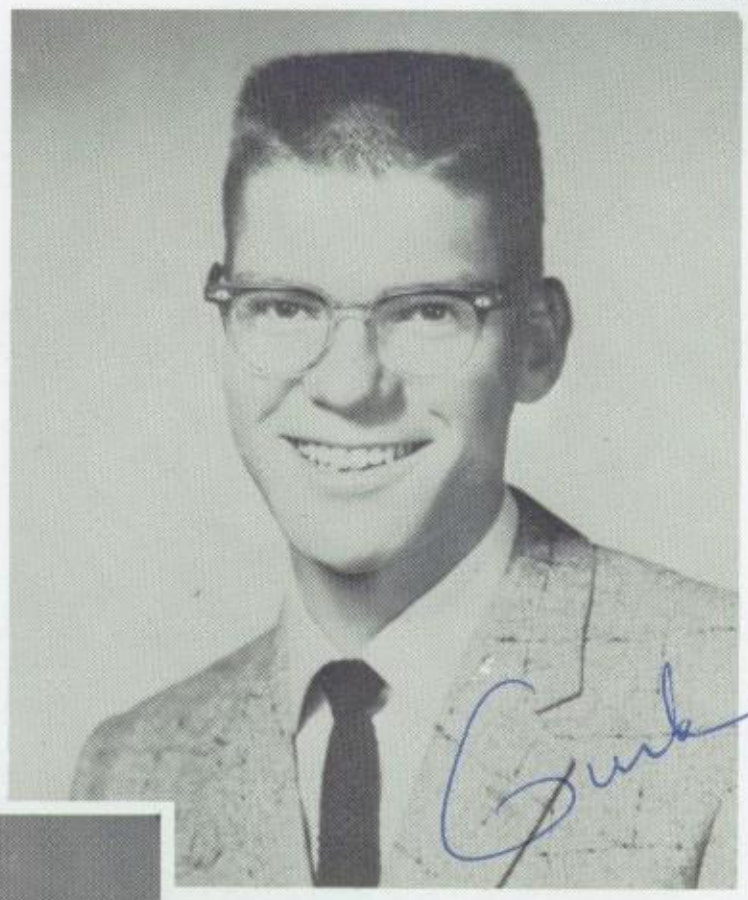
TOM LANKFORD—Applauded for his combined role of athlete and scholar, Tom's classmates looked to him for leadership in such varied parts as co-captain of football, President of Honor Society, and co-chairman of the Senior Ball. His outstanding athletic ability and intelligence did not prevent his genuine personality from showing through in the form of a sincere smile and friendly word for everyone.

MARY ANNE ARBUCKLE—A cheerful smile, a friendly "hello", and an enthusiastic manner were her trademarks. Packing enthusiasm into every role she played, Mary Anne performed in a variety of capacities from directing the Bengalettes in an intricate drill to starring as princess in both the Homecoming and YAC Sweetheart Royalty. These attributes plus her intelligence marked Mary Anne for recognition at LHS.

JOHN GEIDL—Acting out the old adage, "To have a friend, one must be a friend," John became one of the best-liked and most sought after players on the LHS scene. John's friendliness knew no social boundaries; his wide smile, warm greeting, and witty jokes were free for the taking. This friendliness plus his scholastic and athletic achievements obtained leadership and respect for John from members of the student body.

Seniors, 1963

JAN COX—During her high school career, Jan was flooded in limelight as classmates showered her with widely varied honors and responsibilities. She assumed leadership in the form of class and student body offices, took an active part in clubs and on dance committees, and was chosen Queen of Hearts for the traditional Senior Tea. Jan also maintained a 4.0 grade average. While coming back for curtain call, Jan never lost the sincerity, humility, and beautiful character which radiate from her warm spirit.



ALLEN JOHNSTON — Capturing the spotlight as Student Body President, "Gurk" directed student government and led classmates by example as well as precept. A top scholar with a 4.0 grade average, Allen still found time to exercise his outstanding athletic abilities and to play in band and orchestra. Allen's treasure of accomplishments was matched only by his treasure of friends.

MARY ANN LEE—Talent, an elusive quality that few performers actually possess, springs like magic from Mary Ann's fingertips when she touches a piano keyboard. Through music, Mary Ann can express her deepest feelings, and through music she won the admiration of her classmates. Noted for her sincere manner and ladylike ways, Mary Ann led in school organizations and gave invaluable assistance in planning school dances.

LEWISTON FURNITURE COMPANY

YOUR HOME-OWNED STORE SINCE 1913

1963 marks Lewiston Furniture Company's 50 years of service to the Lewiston Valley.

During that period many changes have taken place, including the growth and betterment of the Lewiston public schools . . . We, at the LEWISTON FURNITURE COMPANY, would like to take this opportunity to express our thanks to each and every one who have graduated from this school for their friendship and patronage over these past years . . . OUR CONGRATULATIONS to the fine class of 1963. We hope we may serve them as we have served their parents and grandparents . . .

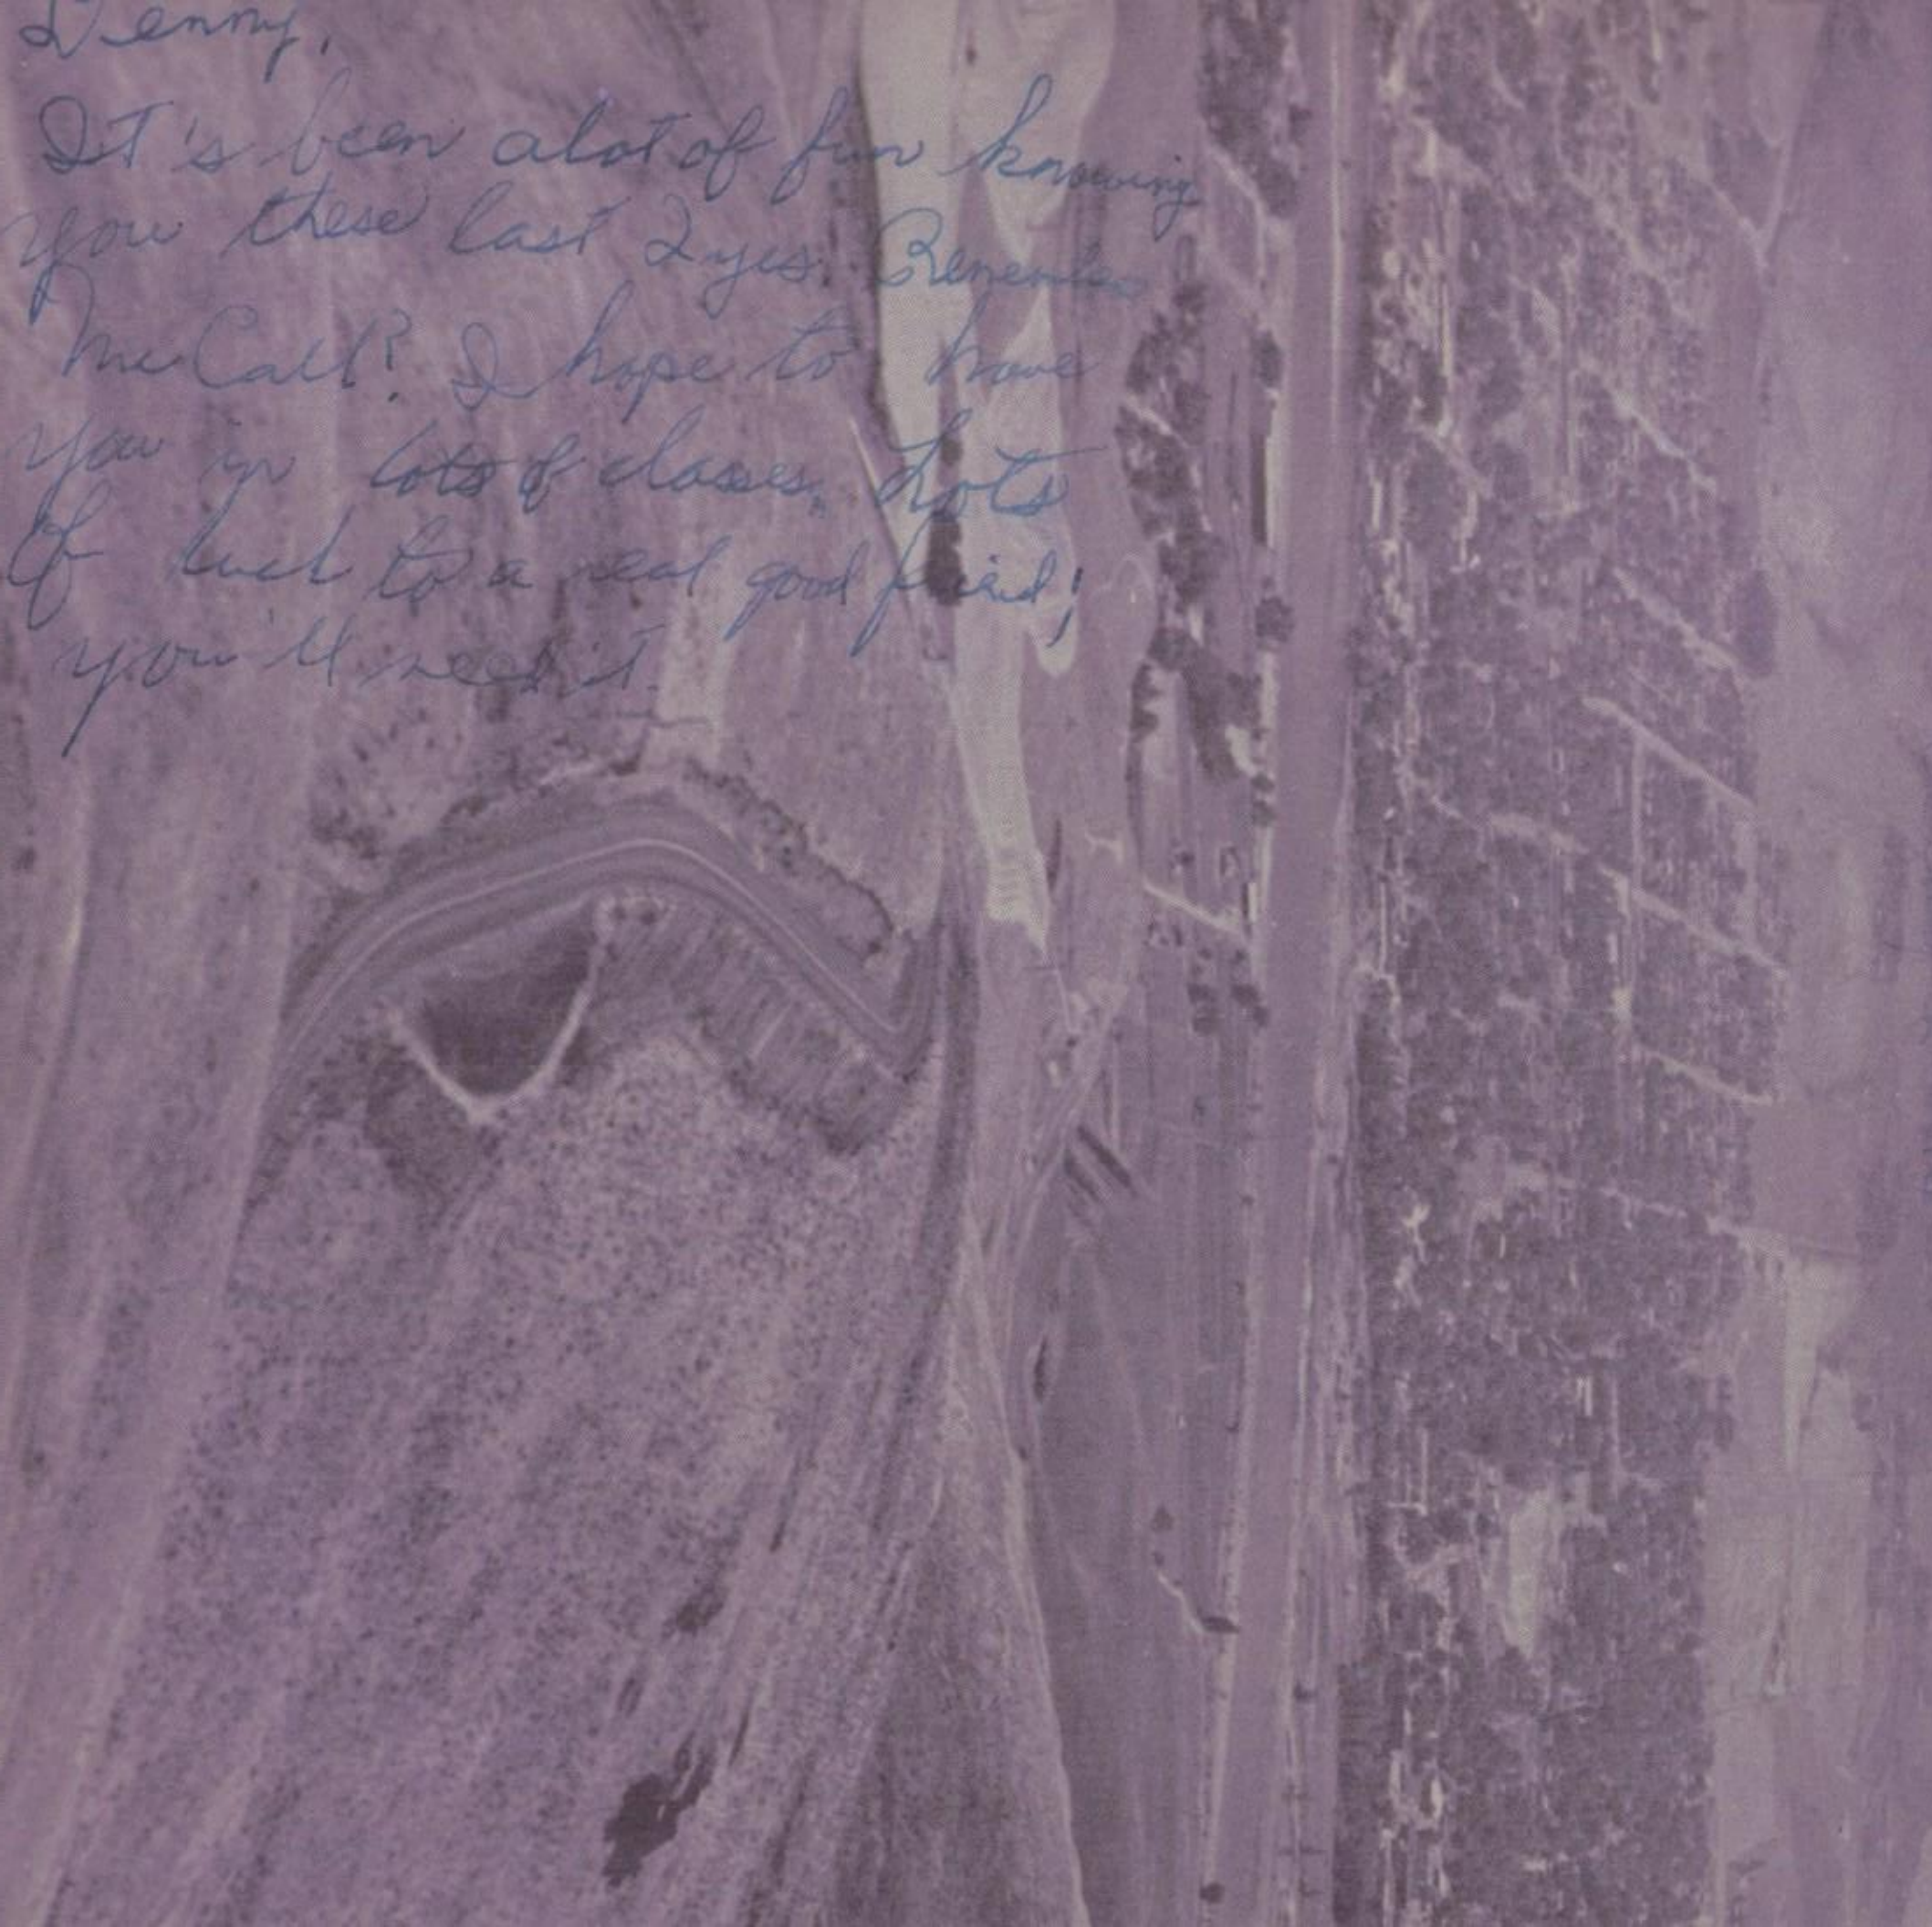
Denny-

Thanks for finally writing in my annual! I really don't deserve the honor! (HA!) It's been lots of fun being in Study Hall with you and sitting by you in Mona D.'s class! It had a riot! Maybe next year if we're lucky we'll get some classes together, if we're lucky(?)! I hope you've had as much fun this year as I have! Sitting by nuts like John, Mike, Danny and you how could I help it?! Have lots of fun this summer and be good. (As if it makes any difference to you if I say be good or not!)

Bye-

Gail '65

Denny,


It's been alot of fun knowing you these last 2 yrs. Remember McCall? I hope to have you in lots of classes. Lots of luck to a real good friend, you'll need it.
